Israel Wary of Vatican Synod

A recent Vatican synod of bishops, called to discuss the situation in the Middle East, has stirred Israel's fears. Although recent popes have attempted to reach out to the Jews, they are still wary. Centuries of persecution by dozens of popes are not easily forgotten. One writer in the Israel National News of October 24 focused on a statement in the final document of the synod: "Recourse to theological and biblical positions which use the Word of God to wrongly justify injustices is not acceptable."

This was in the context of admonishing Israel to commit "to a sincere, just and permanent peace." Elsewhere in the document the synod expresses "hope that the two-State-

Seed Planted in the Philippines Now Ready for Harvest

"There have been over 700 professions of faith reported just from the tract distribution," writes Asian missionary, Dr. Donny Whitlock. This is just the beginning of the reports filtering back by e-mail from Whitlock after his Chick tract blitz of the Philippines.

Through the summer and fall, over one million copies of This Was Your Life in Tagalog were shipped out to some 90 churches throughout the Philippine Islands. Pastors are describing how they were field-solution might become a reality and not a dream only,” and, that the UN would take “the necessary legal steps to put an end to the occupation of the different Arab territories.” The Israel National News reporter comments: “The Catholic church in recent years has been trying to overcome centuries of anti-Semitism and proof that it exploited the Holocaust to try to convert Jews who were saved.” He is referring to recent revelations that, while the Vatican claimed to have intervened and saved many Jews from Hitler’s gas chambers, in reality, it did so to convert them to Catholicism. Babies, in particular, who were saved, were baptized and placed with

Roman Catholic families and never told of their Jewish heritage.

The tenor of the final document is clearly in favor of the Palestinians as victims of “occupation” and denied “justice.” Little mention is made of the relentless Palestinian attacks on Israel and their constant demand that the only “just” solution that they will accept is the elimination of Israel.

At the conclusion of the synod, one archbishop, Cyril Salim Bustros, restated the pope’s long held belief that God’s promise of an eternal homeland for the Jews, was cancelled when Jewish leaders rejected

Parents Fighting Back Against Government Schools

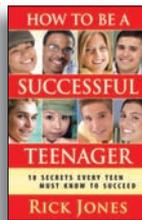

Homeschooling has become the fastest growing form of education in the United States, according to the National Home Education Research Institute. At the present growth rate, ten percent of the K-12 students in the country could be taught by parents at home within five years.

Adding that to the tens of thousands of private schools, no other nation has such a variety of options. And no other nation has the basic freedom that allows such variety. In Europe, several cases have recently reached the attention of the international media.

One current case in Sweden involves a father who was arrested just this month for violating visitation rules. His son was taken at gunpoint without search warrant or due process simply because he was home schooled.

Another family recently fled to the U.S. to avoid prosecution under mandatory school attendance laws. Most of Europe is much stricter about school attendance and severely limits parental rights to discipline as they see fit. Spanking has been outlawed for some time in most countries. Unfortunately, U.S. government policy is rapidly shifting in that direction.

Under anti-discrimination laws, schools must accommodate unbiblical behavior that was not tolerated a generation ago. Christian parents find themselves increasingly at odds with the government schools that sexualize children under the guise of “health education.” One judge in California last year told one family that, if they send their children to the government schools, they must accept whatever the school chooses to teach them.

Currently, the Federal Department of Education is proposing that all private

Does your church have a Spanish ministry?

If so, they probably buy Spanish Bibles to give to new converts. Many Christians are unaware that the RV 1960 Bible contains many modernistic, critical readings that actually change doctrine! Debate is heating up as more Christians become aware of shortcomings in their Spanish Bibles. This book gives the history of the Spanish Bible and explains the simple reasons why the RVG 2010 is the only Bible you can trust.

- A 30-page chart comparing the RVG 2010 to other Spanish Bibles.
- The 8 reasons why the president of a Bible society recommends the RVG 2010.
- The history of the ten-year effort behind this revision of the beloved RV 1909.
- Why this is NOT a translation of the KJV.
- The background and testimony of the revisor heading up the project, Humberto Gómez.
- Reasons why so many Spanish pastors and missionaries trust the RVG 2010.

Doubt! Satan's Sharpest Arrow

While chatting with a young student at a Bible college, he remarked that he was considering studying Greek in order to read the Bible in the original languages. I then asked him, "Which Greek text will you read?" His blank look of confusion was typical of most Bible students.

Few people today are aware of one of Satan's greatest victories that he pulled off over a century ago. Satan has always had a bull's eye on God's word, beginning with his sly question to Eve: "Yea, hath God said...?"

Over and over, Lucifer has drawn his bow and shot this arrow of doubt into the human heart. He succeeded in stirring up enough unbelief in the children of Israel that they had to mill around in the wilderness for 40 years within a short distance from the Promised Land. The Old Testament stories are filled with doubters, including some of the most famous. Adam doubted that God meant what He said about the forbidden fruit. Sarah laughed at God's promise of a child in her old age. Patriarchs and prophets, alike, had their spasms of doubt.

When Jesus spoke God's words, most who heard Him doubted them, even when they saw the miracles. Throughout the record of the Acts of the Apostles, some believed their preaching, others doubted and strove to silence the messengers. Paul was hounded from city to city by the doubters.

Finally, when the Bible was complete, Satan had a single target: DESTROY THAT BOOK! Believers spent months making hand copies, only to have them burned. But Jesus kept His promise that "heaven and earth shall pass away, but My words shall not pass away." (See Matt. 24:35.)

Faithful copies of the originals were preserved, sometimes by believers hiding

Like Eating an Elephant!

Outreach Missionary Bill Eubanks reports from Zimbabwe that his trip is going well. His team is finding amazing acceptance of the message and opportunity to deliver it. "The school system has really opened up to us. My nephew and I have preached in up to eight schools in one day." The schools run as high as 1,400 students. The country is divided into 10 provinces and there are over a thousand schools in each province.

A local pastor told Eubanks that reaching all those students was like "eating an elephant." However, the tracts are like ants, not very big but if you get enough of them, even an elephant is no match.

Of the 200,000 tracts that Chick Publications shipped to Zimbabwe for Eubank's outreach, only 47,000 are left with several weeks to go. He plans to raise his order to 250,000 tracts next trip. The need is so great that he plans to double the number of trips per year.

Besides preaching and saturating the schools with tracts, evenings are spent showing the Light of the World video in the villages. Most have no electricity, so the whole village turns out for the showing, intrigued by the video powered by a portable generator. Since Zimbabwe was once the British colony of Rhodesia, many understand English, which is listed as one of the country's official languages.

This makes Eubank's message especially effective since only a few tracts have been translated into the local languages.

Join Curtis Bowers for a fascinating look at the people and groups that have successfully targeted America's morality and freedom in their effort to grind America down.

We cannot serve two masters. Either we serve God or the government. A nation that follows God and His laws will naturally enjoy a free society with limited government. But a people that rejects God and His laws will not be capable of governing themselves, and Big Government will be all too happy to take His place.

We'd better hurry. It's almost too late!

Confusion Growing over Tolerance of Homosexuals

The signing of the Don't-Ask-Don't-Tell repeal by President Obama is yet another advance to the mass confusion caused by the sodomite "abomination." It is a victory for homosexual activists, but military officials plan to use caution in implementing it.

Foot soldiers wonder how they will feel when ogled in the common showers and chaplains fear restrictions on preaching from certain scriptures where God expresses His opinion on the subject.

We are just beginning to see some of the early consequences of legalizing this sin. David Epstein, a Columbia University professor arrested for felony incest with his consenting 24-year-old daughter, is pointing to the 2003 Supreme Court decision striking down sodomy laws.

The court found that the government cannot prohibit "private, consensual, sexual or intimate conduct that does not involve minors or coercion." Epstein argues that this makes incest legal between any consenting adults.

In Maine, a middle school is being charged with discrimination against a sixth-grade child who is a boy, biologically, but has chosen the "gender identity" of a girl. Instead of allowing him/her access to the girls' bathroom and showers as she/he requested, they provided personal separate facilities and sensitivity training for the staff and other students.

The parents sued because this arrangement "isolated and alienated" her/him from other students. They then moved the child to another school to escape the "hostile environment."

Another front of attack by the sodomite lobby is called ENDA, the Employment Non-Discrimination Act. If passed by the legislature it would add "sexual orientation" and "gender identity" to the list of protected categories that an employer cannot consider when hiring, firing or promoting someone. The bill supposedly contains a "church exemption," thus not forcing churches to hire someone who does not hold the church's biblical values. But what about Christian publishers, gospel bookstores, missions organizations, etc.?

If ENDA passes into law, it would be administered by the Equal Opportunity Employment Commission. President Obama's nominee to sit on the EOEC is Chai Feldblum, an open lesbian and Georgetown law professor. When asked about employers considering religious beliefs when hiring, she replied, "Gays win; Christians lose!"

Another goal of the homosexual lobby is the repeal of the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA). This law, enacted in the mid 1990s, states that marriage must only be between a man and a woman. This is the main block against legal acceptance of same-sex marriage nationwide. If it falls, all states will have to honor such marriages performed in other states.

As mentioned in a previous Battle Cry about the judge's ruling against the Christian Legal Society at Hastings Law School, other universities are pressuring Christian clubs on campus to stop "discriminating" against homosexuals by refusing to allow them to be leaders in their clubs. Also, other states are following California's lead in mandating the teaching that same-sex marriage is just an alternate life style.

Until the last quarter century, our laws agreed with the Bible that sodomy was a

Warning: Disney ‘Magic’ Toxic to Children

One by one, sources of family-friendly entertainment and education are sinking into the mire. For half a century, families have relied on the wholesomeness and exquisite fun produced by the company started in a garage by Walt and Roy Disney. The magic of their kingdoms employ 140,000 people worldwide. But surely Walt would be horrified to see how their kingdom has been converted into a major glamorizer of sin; a key corruptor of “good manners” in our culture.

A dozen years ago a relative of mine worked at an auto dealer near the Disneyland in California. One day he told me of his concern that many of the Disney executives who came for auto service appeared “gay.” Today, those leaders have succeeded in including sodomite themes in many of their movies, TV programs, advertising, and even video games.

Along with promoting this abomination, productions are also rife with violence, nudity, and profanity. Each year in colleges and universities be required to obtain approval from the federal government for accreditation in addition to private accreditation organizations that have functioned for over 100 years.

Government Schools...

The United Nations also is pushing to get into the act. For several years, the U.S. Senate has resisted ratifying the U.N. Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC). Should we ratify it, then the U.N. regulations would supersede our own country’s laws.

Senator Barbara Boxer has pushed hard to get the Senate to ratify the treaty but resistance has come from a group of lawmakers led by Senator Jim DeMint. “We believe we need to take clear action here in Congress to protect the rights of parents to raise their children,” DeMint said. “This treaty would, in fact, establish a precedent that those rights have been given over to the international community.”

This is all part of the trend to remove control of our children from us as parents and place them under control of the state. We can be assured that the state’s interest will not be based on moral and spiritual values held dear by Bible believers.

Christian parents must no longer view the government schools as their friend in raising godly children. We must remember what religious researcher George Barna has determined, that what happens to a child before age 13 will largely determine his spiritual and moral perspective for life. Little change happens after that age.

Homeschoolers have it right: parents are still the best teachers. While every family has different constraints, godly parents must use every means to develop a solid, biblical foundation in their children.

If home schooling is not an option, then we need to help kids understand God’s view of the good and evil in the world so they can understand and make good choices.

Chick Publications receives many testimonies of the effectiveness of Chick tracts, comics and books in helping shape their children’s biblical world view.

The tracts and comics provide short, no-nonsense stories illustrating basic truths that the child will never forget.

Then, books like Stairway to Hell and How to Be a Successful Teenager help guide the teenager who may be struggling with his emerging independence.

This belief is the spark that has ignited centuries of persecution of the Jews. “Christ killers” was the cry of the crusaders who slaughtered thousands of Jews on their way to liberate Jerusalem from the Muslim infidels. The sordid history of the Vatican’s persecution of the Jews has been all but eliminated from modern history books. But modern Israel remembers and is not about to let the recent sweet talk from the Vatican fool them. They know that millions of Jews have died at the hands of popes and tyrants motivated by Satan’s determination to eliminate them.

They also know that the pope is an additional enemy with eyes fixed on Jerusalem. Not only is it holy to Judaism and

Islam, the Vatican is also maneuvering behind the scenes to gain control of it. Rome’s expressed solution to the problem of Jerusalem is to internationalize it under UN jurisdiction. The popes’ cozy position with the UN would, presumably, give them a part in ruling the city. Many details of this history of the Vatican against the Jews have been preserved in the accounts given by ex-Jesuit Alberto Rivera.

The Alberto series of Crusader Comics by Chick Publications pulls together some of the facts behind Roman Catholicism’s historic attempts to eliminate the Jews and substitute itself as the “people of God.”

The Jesuits have been the Vatican’s “special forces” over the centuries in the attempt to solve the “Jewish problem.” Edmund Paris’s book, The Secret History of the Jesuits, also contains a detailed account of their maneuverings over the years.

“preferred” behavior that people chose to do. Now, they have succeeded in selling the lie that they were born with a same-sex “orientation.” This makes them eligible for special “civil rights,” just like people who were born black. Using the anti-discrimination laws, they are claiming all kinds of benefits and protections for their sinful lifestyle.

Chick Publications has tried to warn against this abomination with tracts and books exposing these lies and stressing God’s viewpoint. Our newest tract, Uninvited, shows how Satan uses his devils to seduce people into this sinful lifestyle. But Jesus has power even over this demonic spirit.

ing calls for more information from people who have gotten the tracts. Many are led to the Lord on the spot and others have already prayed the prayer of faith.

Only a few of the reports have come in, mostly from the areas that have access to phones and e-mail. "Of course," continues Whitlock, "we don't have all the reports... this is just from a few of the pastors that received tracts. Many of the tracts have gone into the outer islands. We rejoice in what God is doing through the tracts. Praise the LORD for VICTORY!"

Whitlock and his team are rejoicing over the harvest in the Philippines. However, he sees this as a new dimension. For years, he and others have been sowing seeds of the gospel there, trusting the Lord for a harvest. As the political situation has improved, that seed is sprouting into hundreds of small churches.

A great part of Whitlock's time now is spent in pastor's conferences spending hours or days training these pastors. Their hunger is sometimes so great that a training session may include a time of weeping before the Lord as they pray for the millions there who have never heard the gospel.

One pastor, who received one of the boxes of 10,000 tracts, set up an outreach to one of the more populated, but depressed areas of the Philippines. He writes: "There were 97 participants who joined their hearts together and distributed 5,129 tracts in two days and then held preaching services with 1,281 attending. There were 501 who professed to receive Jesus Christ as their Saviour."

Whitlock has ministered in the orient for over 30 years and travels widely "planting seed" for the next harvest. Not content to stay and rejoice over the results in the Philippines, he is busy planting seed in Thailand, Burma and Laos. These countries do not yet have the political freedom for revival to break openly as in the Philippines. Eighteen years ago, Whitlock started sowing in Thailand and nine years ago in Burma and Laos. "There has been very little fruit compared to other places, but we are grateful for every soul the Lord has given. My prayer is that one day there will be a harvest in these three nations as we are now seeing in the Philippines. Until that day, I must continue to plow, sow and water," he says.

Chick tracts are one type of seed that missionaries like to use. At least one title has been translated into over 100 languages available to missionaries on the field. The Christian businessman who furnished the Tagalog tracts for the Philippines, was blessed with some extra finances and dedicated them to refilling Whitlock's seed basket.

No doubt there will be thousands of souls in heaven who will look back to that little paper missionary, a Chick tract, that started them on the road to salvation.

If you would like to help a missionary that your church has sent to the field, suggest that he go to www.chick.com and pick out tracts that he would like to use. We will drop-ship to him as many as you are able to purchase. If you cannot find a missionary, we receive requests frequently that we can help you fill. (See page 11.) in caves. When Gutenberg invented the moveable-type printing press, Satan lost that battle. Hundreds, eventually millions of Bibles flooded the world.

Doubt...

At that point, Satan had to fall back on his old strategy of creating doubt in God's words. Working through his ever-faithful prostitute church, headquartered in the Vatican, he set out to pollute the Bible. If people had to choose between different versions of the Bible, which had contradictory meanings, how could they trust that they had the true Words of God? (Oh! Oh! There's that "doubt" thing again.)

In spite of the fact that there were thousands of manuscripts supporting the existing Bible, two or three "new" discoveries of "older" manuscripts were made. One was conveniently "uncovered" in the vast Vatican archives. Another showed up in a wastebasket in a monastery near mount Sinai, "found" by German scholar Constantine von Tischendorf, after a lengthy audience with the Pope.

Word went out that, because these were "older" than all the existing manuscripts, they had to be more accurate to the lost originals. All who questioned this faulty logic were promptly shouted down.

The pope's henchmen were assembled to update the Bible using these "better" texts. Among the unbelievers chosen for this were two key players: Brooke Foss Westcott and Fenton John Anthony Hort. Their task was to come up with a new Greek text based on these "discoveries." This became the foundation document for all the "modern" Bibles. Word spread quickly that the Bible that most people had trusted for 300 years was "antiquated, hard to understand, had obsolete language, etc." Confusion reigned and doubt has swept the land. In my mind, that confusion is framed in the picture of my young friend's face when I asked which Greek text he planned to study.

Satan's strategy has worked, probably better than he had dared to hope.

Examine your own heart. Is there a "deep, settled peace" that the Bible you hold in your hand is, indeed, the words that Jesus promised would "not pass away?" For more details of this strategy of Satan, read Did the Catholic Church Give Us the Bible? and Look What's Missing, by David W. Daniels.

Cultural Mine Fields...

June, Disney theme parks host “Gay Day” attended by an estimated 130,000 homosexuals.

The web site, CulturalPolluters.org, provides a huge list of Disney productions and activities highly toxic to family values. Subsidiaries such as Miramax Films, Marvel Studios, ABC Studios, Touchstone Video Games, Hyperion Publishers, and others produce a variety of material containing everything from sodomite themes to witchcraft.

The corporate culture includes an organization called Walt Disney World PRIDE, and “Officially recognizes GLBT (gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender/transsexual) employee groups and/or special networks designed especially for GLBT employees,” according to CulturalPolluters.org. In recruiting employees, Disney scores 100% favorable to homosexuals on “Corporate Equality Indexes” maintained by homosexual advocacy organizations such as the 750,000-member Human Rights Campaign. (HRC).

Disney’s charitable giving supports organizations such as Planned Parenthood, largest U.S. abortion provider. Disney advertising dollars support TV shows that contain sexually graphic, violent or profane materials. Disney ads also appear in magazines and periodicals written for the homosexual community.

Today, Satan is using every possible avenue to corrupt our children.

The culture once supported parents in bringing up youngsters as decent citizens. Sin was frowned on by neighbors, relatives, teachers and coworkers. Today, it is hard to tell who the enemy is. Entertainers ran out of clean fun and resorted to smut and violence. Neighborhoods fragmented, some families trying to hold the line on decency while others proudly display their debauchery.

Schools have been forced to switch from biblical precepts to the lies of evolution, human potential, and tolerance for all kinds of weird ideas. Even churches seem confused at what to do: go with the flow or teach the whole Bible. But when you have different bibles that don’t agree, the confusion compounds.

Even the government is little help with the current debate of who really “owns” the children, the state or the parents. Child Protective Services are always ready to “help” any parents who they think might need it.

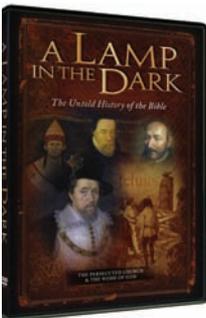

Since families cannot opt out of the culture, strategies must be developed to help children identify and resist the evil. First should be a good foundation in what God thinks about all this, which can only come by a thorough knowledge of a Bible they know they can trust. Then, parents must maintain constant contact with the child’s world, helping him learn to sort the good from the evil.

Carefully selected study aids go a long way to accomplish this goal. Chick Publications has spent nearly 50 years creating engaging stories with solid biblical themes.

Two generations of children have grown up on Chick tracts and literature, prompting thousands of opportunities for dinner table discussions of God’s prescribed way of life. Guiding your children through today’s cultural mine fields will require a lot more attention than previous families have had to do.

A MESSAGE FROM JACK CHICK...

Dear ones in Christ,

All across the country, schools observe a time of silence, not for fallen heroes on battlefields, not in respect for the Lord in prayer, but for an ever increasing group of individuals that they call “gay.” These poor, deluded souls are being embraced, honored and defended. Any who resist this issue are branded as “haters.”

Thanks to the word “tolerance,” everyone is scared to death to offend a “gay.” The media talking heads will always say: “there’s nothing wrong with being “gay.” Judges of that persuasion push laws in their favor. Preachers are threatened with arrest for preaching on Romans 1.

Remember this scripture: “Woe to them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter... They have cast away the law of the Lord of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.” (See Isaiah 5:20-24.)

How do the sodomites get away with this? They’ve grabbed onto a term that totally disarms the public. Heavens to Betsy, we mustn’t be “intolerant!”

And what is their excuse? “We were born this way!” Oh, really? The One who created them says they are “giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh . . .” (Jude 7) That doesn’t sound like a birth defect, does it? Read our latest tract, Uninvited. It’s an eye-opener that just might save your kid from this sin.

Yours in Christ,

YOU CAN TRUST ME... I'M ONE OF THE CHOSEN PEOPLE!

NOT UNLESS HE IS JEWISH!

(See Ezekiel 37:21-25.)
