

Virgin of Guadalupe Deceiving Millions

Nowhere is Roman Catholicism's pagan idolatry more visible than in Mexico during mid-December. An estimated 9 million people make the pilgrimage to the Virgin of Guadalupe shrine in Mexico City to pledge their trust to the Virgin Mary goddess.

But the devil behind the idol is not nice. Part of the tradition of the ritual is to curry the goddess's favor by walking on your knees across the huge plaza before viewing the peasant's cloak imprinted with a supposedly miraculous image of the goddess.

The cloak is behind bullet-proof glass above the altar of the basilica housing the image. Four moving sidewalks run below the image, allowing visitors only a brief view, preventing any who would linger. This is necessary to accommodate the huge crowds who arrive for this feast day on December 12th. It is See Virgin of Guadalupe... p. 2

Methodists Vote to Obey the Bible

The mainline United Methodist denomination held an international conference in St. Louis in February to decide whether to approve homosexual leadership and same-sex marriage.

For years, LGBT activists inside the denomination have ignored God's mandate on homosexual behavior. One bishop and hundreds of UM clergy have come out as LGBT, despite a ban in place since 1972. For Bible believers, the vote went in the right direction mainly because members from outside the US voted to reject the assault by the homosexual wing.

claimed that this is the day in which an apparition of Mary appeared to Juan Diego in 1531, miraculously leaving the imprint on his cloak.

So, what is wrong with this picture? First of all, this celebration is not about Jesus. The attention here is on a substitute Jesus, a manufactured goddess, an insult to the gentle lady who was chosen to birth our Saviour. It is typical of the efforts of the counterfeit “church” based in Rome to hijack man’s trust from Christ and the Bible and point it somewhere else.

This worship of the Virgin Mary goddess is part of a system that includes prayers to dead saints for favors and the kissing of bones and artifacts of relics — none of which is supported by scripture. Contorted interpretations of the Bible are used to justify the bondage of over a billion people who trust the pope to get them to heaven. In some cases, support for these unbiblical practices has to come from the Apocrypha, fairytales added to Roman Catholic Bibles.

How sad that so many, even some who claim to be Bible believers, have fallen for the lie that Catholics just have a slightly different worship style, but are really “Christians.” Since Constantine, the popes have been nothing but enemies of the Bible and Bible believers. In the tragic era of the dark ages, Rome’s persecution of the godly was brutal and bloody.

Since then, their cunning attacks have blunted any attempts to witness the truth to Rome’s deceived. After all, since they are already “Christian,” why give them a gospel tract that might offend them?

Add to that their machinations against the preserved words of God. Research with modern methods has revealed a monstrous plot right under our noses to destroy faith in what God gave us in His word. All modern Bibles are tainted with changed and missing verses that slant the text to be favorable for Roman doctrine. Their text is based on faked manuscripts engineered into place by scholars who doubted that we can have God’s complete words.

God has led Chick Publications to produce tracts and books exposing the cooperation between the Vatican and the spirit of anti-Christ that the Apostle John said was already loose in the world in his time. (See 1 John 4:3.)

Is it not a sign that our love has grown cold when we ignore the eternal danger of the more than one billion people who believe they must work for their salvation, like those on their knees in Mexico City? If we are ashamed to tell them the truth, will not Jesus be ashamed of us at Judgment day?

vibrant, Bible believing, major denomination. In 1970, they claimed 15 million members in the US. Now, US membership has dropped almost by half while UM-affiliated denominations in Africa, Latin America, and Asia have shown significant growth. In the convention voting, these overseas groups succeeded in tamping down the attack by the US homosexual activists.

Methodism originated from the open-air preaching of John and Charles Wesley during the 19th century. Prior to the revivals that they initiated, the institutional church was hidebound by layers of hierarchy and ritual. The Wesleys invited the people to open-air services where the music was familiar to the common people and the preaching spoke to their sin with solid gospel solutions.

By the 20th century, the Methodists had begun to lose some of their fervor,

The Theory from Hell

When we search for a reason for the fierceness (See 2 Tim. 3) of some of the politics today, we need look no further than Darwin's theory of evolution. Since this new religion has replaced respect for a Creator, Paul's list of perilous times described to Timothy is increasingly real.

"Darwinism has had a devastating impact on society. Its ramifications reach into the deepest aspects of social life and culture," writes Vance Ferrell in The Evolution Handbook. Evolution leaves man without a spirit —just another one of the animals. Thus, there is no right or wrong. And if "survival of the fittest" is the ultimate aim, then there is no room for the weak and powerless. They must be eliminated, fiercely if necessary.

So Hitler was just being a good evolutionist when he eliminated the weak and disabled along with the Jews (and Christians) who did not buy into his brand of "fitness." The same is happening in China today to the Christians who threaten communism's atheism.

Since evolution became the religion of atheistic humanism, all other religions are anathema. They have converted "freedom of religion" to "freedom from religion." If man evolved, all religions, including Biblical Christianity, are just myths, created to control the masses.

Attempting to adjust to the galloping effects of evolution has caused much of "Christianity" to become unbiblical. The first chapters of Genesis are consigned to poetry in many seminaries, replaced by a hybrid theory including the Big Bang. But Ferrell points out that if you accept the beginning to be the explosion of a tiny, highly compressed dot of matter and energy which swelled over billions of years to the existing cosmos, then you have to ignore the six days of Genesis. If this part of the Bible is wrong, can we trust John 3:16?

It is hard to detail all the ways that "Another devastating quality of evolutionary theory is the fact that it is but a variant form of atheism. Its advocates militantly attack religion in general and Christianity in particular. Christianity is declared to be superstition and the Bible a book of myths.

Evolutionary teaching and Christianity are total opposites. They are entirely incompatible. No one can believe both teachings or try to combine parts of the two. For anyone to attempt to do so is but to fool oneself.

Among Christians, there are church leaders, religion teachers, science teachers, and scientists who attempt to combine part of evolutionary theory with biblical beliefs, but the two positions do not mix. For example, some will claim to believe the Bible, yet will maintain that there were long ages of developing life forms into human beings before the six-day creation of Genesis 1.

If such be true, then the fall of man as given in Genesis 3 is incorrect. And if man did not fall into sin, then the promise of Genesis 3:15 is not needed, Christ is not needed, Calvary is not needed, no atonement for sin is needed, salvation from sin is not needed."

—Vance Ferrell, The Evolution Handbook, p.795

evolution's elimination of God affects our world. Since "science" has replaced God as the source of truth, one need only look at where this has taken us. Science says that preborn babies are only blobs of tissue; thus 60 million U.S. murders by abortion since Roe v Wade. (Some 40 million more are killed worldwide each year.)

A false science applied to the history of the Bible denies that God is able to preserve His words. The result: dozens

Drag Queens Out to “Groom” Your Kids

Any parent not yet convinced that the government is out to get your kids should review the headlines of a collection of recent articles:

“Middle School Invites Drag Queen to Speak at Career Day”

“Drag Queen Used to Teach Honesty to 2nd Graders in New CA Textbook”

“K-12 Schools Bringing in Drag Queens to Teach Gender Ideology”

“American Division of the Library Association Promotes Drag Queen Library Story Hours”

Fortunately, some communities are fighting back. When drag queen Dylan Pontiff helped organize a story hour for children as young as three at the Lafayette (Louisiana) Public Library last October, parents packed the next city council meeting. There they heard Dylan admit to the council that: “This is going to be the grooming of the next generation. We are trying to groom the next generation.”

He admitted that he “performs” in R-rated shows for adults but claimed that he was able to “filter” his shows for the youngsters.

Parents were outraged when the city council refused a resolution to denounce the library program. Apparently, the council had no jurisdiction over the library agenda, even if the resolution had passed.

“This is not about tolerance or anti-bullying,” Leslie Alexander, a member of the community, told the Lafayette Daily Advertiser. “It is a direct and intentional effort to create gender confusion and doubt among very young children at the very time they need solid guidance and understanding. The intent is to plant a seed to make children more likely to question their sexuality or gender at a later age.”

“Recruiting children?
You bet we are.”

Lifesitenews quotes other homosexual activists who state flatly their agenda: “Why would we push anti-bullying programs or social studies classes that teach kids about the historical contributions of famous queers unless we wanted to deliberately educate children to accept queer sexuality as normal?” states U.S. activist Daniel Villarreal in a column for Queerty.com. “We want educators to teach future generations of children to accept queer sexuality. In fact, our very future depends on it. Recruiting children? You bet we are,” he added.

Homosexual activist Michael Swift wrote in 1987 in the Gay Community News that school children would become explicit targets for homosexual indoctrination. “We shall seduce them in your schools...They will be recast in our image. They will come to crave and adore us,” he wrote at the time.

What's a parent to do? Satan wants your child to see sexual deviancy as an option for life. You can protect their "innocence" only so long. Sooner or later they will begin to ask the hard questions.

If they are firmly grounded in God's point of view on sex, they will be more able to resist temptation. Sexual sin must be viewed as God does all other sin: Satan's way of killing you early. Whether it is drugs, bank robbery, or syphilis, all are designed to promote early death.

Children must understand this as early as possible.

Much of the literature published by Chick Publications is simple, basic biblical truth. Miracle in Papua New Guinea

A young man (John) recently showed up at missionary Eric Fair's headquarters in Papua New Guinea eager to talk. Fair relates the story that John told him:

"You came to the jail on March 7, 2018 and sang a few songs with your guitar and preached to the prisoners. I was in the jail that day for armed robbery. You were the guys that gave me the tract after you preached that day.

"I was under so much conviction after the message and reading the tract that I told the Lord I wanted to give my life to Him. I tried my best to pray to Him and tell Him that I wanted peace... I asked God to take my life and use it because I wanted to follow Him and not Satan anymore.

"I knew I had wasted so many years of my life living for the devil, but I wanted God to take the rest of my life and use it. The police told me I would most likely get 75 years for my crimes.

"I thought to myself, 'Wow, I will never come out of this jail alive. I'm 31 years old now, so I would be 106 by the time I would be let out!' The people in my village told everyone that I would be a dead man before I would be released.

"I realized that was the point where the Lord wanted me to be, because I would have never humbled myself to come to Him while I had an escape route.

"I had to appear before the courts 3 times. The first 2 times they had the hearing and said they would make the final decision at the 3rd court hearing. Well, I do not know how or why, but they released me before the 3rd hearing.

"After I gave my life to God, I would lead all the other 10 prisoners in my cell in morning prayers and a song service. I know God has given me this opportunity to live my life for Him now! I told the Lord if He ever gave me the chance to find the guys that came to the jail that day, then I would let them know what the Lord has done in my life and thank them too!"

Amongst all the many problems that we run into here, it's definitely a huge encouragement to see some fruit from this ministry. After giving John a Bible and over 200 tracts, which is the same Chick tract that he read that day — This Was Your Life — we prayed together and made plans to meet in the near future.

Sexual Revolution Devastating to Children

“We have an epidemic now of children abusing children,” reports Breakpoint Daily Commentary. At Children’s Mercy Hospital in Kansas City 1000 children are seen each year who have been sexually abused. “Almost half of our perpetrators are minors between the ages of eleven and fifteen,” reports children’s nurse Heidi Olson.

Little girls between four and eight are the most common victims. Many of the children have suffered physical violence in addition to sexual abuse. A shocking number of practicing homosexuals were introduced to sexual activity as a child by an abusive adult.

Investigation of these crimes led to one primary source of motivation: pornography. Mercy Hospital nurses report that the victims are often forced to view pornographic videos and act out sexual acts portrayed. Sometimes they are recorded in these sexual acts.

This leads to another shocking statistic: Minors now commit 25% of all sex crimes. Our whole cultural landscape is littered with the little victims of the shift to sex as recreation instead of procreation. Sixty-one million children have been aborted in America since Roe v Wade. World-wide, the number of innocents dismembered or poisoned before birth exceeds 40 million a year. Millions of men have fathered children only to abandon them to the care of single mothers—or worse.

More recently, the children are now caught in the bewilderment of gender confusion. Even the local libraries and kindergartens are not safe with the appearance of a story hour conducted by cross-dressers reading books about two mommies. “Innocent” children’s cartoons are being invaded by sexually confused characters.

Parents are fighting a losing battle if they wish to protect the innocence of their kids. There is little discussion today about the “power of suggestion.” Topics were once avoided in polite conversation that were considered too “suggestive.” Profanities and obscenities, which often carry sexual overtones were avoided around children, choosing not to arouse their curiosity before they could handle it.

Now, that curiosity is aroused even as early as kindergarten by classes on “sex ed” folded into the “health” curriculum. California has been the leader in incorporating sexual themes into the state education system. In 2015, California signed the Healthy Youth Act stipulating “comprehensive” sex education in all of the state’s public and charter schools. “Age appropriate” lessons were to be used and parents informed about the content and an offer to write an excuse for their child. Previous laws had mandated that HIV prevention be part of sex education classes in the 1990s, and in 2003, that lessons be appropriate for use with all students of all races, genders and sexual orientations.

Instruction on sexual perversion has become so pervasive that the only way to opt out is remove the child from the school.

This year California is producing a new “K-12 health curriculum framework which seeks to radically transform the way public school students think about gender and sexuality,” according to the California Family Council. Details of

Kenya

Open Air Campaigners Kenya is so grateful for the Swahili This Was Your Life tracts that have arrived safely. “They are being used in the open air meetings and school assemblies. Everyone loves them. In the open air, we have to walk through the crowd as they watch the “Jesus” film, and quietly hand them out, or people get trampled if we give them out at the end of the preaching. In the schools, we have to give them to the teachers to hand out in the class rooms after preaching, or the same happens.”

Missionary Joetta Smith just can’t stop praising God over the acceptance (and fruit!) of the Chick tracts in her ministry. She conducts training with local pastors, teaching them the importance of obeying the Great Commission. She says “These guys have ‘caught fire’ to spread the Gospel. It is so exciting to hear them talking about how they are distributing all those tracts and people are begging for more.” Another pastor has started a new “tent” church because of the tracts. God is working! She sums it up like this: “They are beginning to put some restrictions on street preaching etc., but these little tracts can do what no man can stop.”

Japan

Missionary Eli Guiltner uses a lot of Japanese tracts to reach out in Japan, but also finds a number of English speakers there. A Canadian tourist got one and thanked him, saying it was “just what he needed.” We have heard other testimonies of people who have found Christ through a Chick tract when they were in a foreign country. are now in place for the teams of People’s Baptist Ministry to begin their summer, or pre-monsoon outreach (April - June). Instead of going home for summer break (starting the end of March in India) students and faculty of the PBMI school of ministry serve with evangelistic teams.

They:

- Evangelize, handing out tens of thousands of tracts.
- Hold meetings 6 nights weekly for 10 weeks.
- Hold street meetings (where permitted).
- Preach, sing, and give testimonies.
- Deal one-on-one with people, leading them to Christ.
- Do follow-up work resulting in Bible studies, baptisms and establishing new churches.

Last summer, they led 28,000 Indians to faith in Jesus Christ! And armed with the tracts you provided, they are ready to do it again.

Methodists Vote... from p. 2 replaced by Baptists and Pentecostals. Their emphasis shifted to social welfare issues, away from preaching the basic gospel of salvation. Along the way some refused to follow the trend and broke off from the United Methodists to form other groups, such as the Wesleyan Methodists, in order to stay with a more biblical foundation.

True to form, when the vote went against the homosexual activists, they resorted to mob rule and stormed into the center of the convention creating chaos. Security had to prevent other activists from entering the convention floor to add to the disruption. Some were even arrested.

Reports on the discussion that followed shows how unbiblical the activists are: Jan Lawrence, head of one of the LGBT pressure groups said, “There’s still queer people that are born every day into churches everywhere...” —implying that homosexuals are born that way and can’t help themselves. This denies the scriptural truth that it is just another brand of sin for which there is deliverance through the finished work of Christ.

Some in the United Methodists were hoping that the conference would end the strife but that is not likely. The history of the LGBT movement shows that they may be motivated by the same spirit that possessed the men pounding on Lot’s door. If they don’t get their way, somebody is likely to get hurt. For them, tolerance is a one-way street.

This whole scenario demonstrates what happens when we ignore God’s beautiful plan for our joy and peace. And if we ignore His preserved words, we can neither understand nor implement that plan. Many modern Bibles have removed or tweaked God’s words to make sodomy something other than what He calls it—an “abomination.” When He uses such a strong word, then the consequences must be serious.

The LGBT scene is only one result of the “sexual revolution:” Sixty million abortions, a swamp of pornography, wholesale breakup of the family units, demoralized fatherhood, same-sex marriage with children, drag queens teaching kindergarteners—the wholesale destruction of our basically Christian culture.

Some Methodists had hoped for peace after the conference but feel that that is unlikely. If they would review their history, the Wesley brothers laid a firm foundation for the denomination in the King James Bible. They also produced thousands of Gospel tracts to call the common people to repentance. The resulting revivals are legendary. Revival is the only hope of the world—not a global government under the anti-Christ.

Chick tracts carry the same message that the Wesleys preached—from the same Bible. If we are going to rescue America, we must again saturate our neighborhoods with the Word, God’s preserved words.

Devastating... from p. 8

how gender confusion is introduced by this “framework” is beyond the scope of this article, but parents can no longer trust the government schools to protect the innocence of your youngsters. What is happening in California is likely to come to your school district soon!

It is unlikely that our children can grow up unscathed by the fallout of the sexual revolution, even with diligent Christian parents. But we are witnessing the devastating effect for any child who lacks Biblical guidance and protection!

Chick Publications is dedicated to producing wholesome, biblical stories teaching solid biblical truth. They can often be used to promote discussion with your youngsters to help them see the lies that they are being taught.

of versions of the Bible with none considered completely trustworthy.

Science contradicts the Bible in its view of the depravity of man. Evil is not in the heart as stated in Jeremiah 17:9 but is the result of our environment. And the best way to fix the environment is by government control. With no God to provide laws for self-control, socialism provides a ruling class to keep the masses in line.

And, without God, man has no other purpose than to eat, drink and be merry. Thus, the rise of sex for recreation instead of procreation. Science gave us convenient birth control. The devil used it to promote the sexual revolution. Families were destroyed, and millions of babies murdered —creating lots of death, to Satan’s delight.

Ferrell quotes Michael Denton: “It was because Darwinian theory broke man’s link with God and sent him adrift in the cosmos without purpose or end that its impact was so fundamental. No other intellectual revolution in modern times so profoundly affected the way men viewed themselves and their place in the universe. (See The Evolution Handbook, page 801.)

Today, soul winners are about the only voice speaking out against this octopus of evil. The Evolution Handbook contains nearly 1,000 pages of quotes, facts and insights countering this massive lie. It is a great tool to train your children against this pervasive falsehood. A copy should also be in the library of every pastor and Bible teacher as a resource in his teaching against evolution.

Chick Publications also supplies the tract Big Daddy for use in saturating a neighborhood or church with the truth.
