Serving the Bible-believing Christians of the World

Why Is Islam So Dangerous?

Islam is dangerous because Western man assumes it works by the same ground rules as the Judeo-Christian culture. But it doesn't. Islam's code of ethics was born in the cauldron of seventh century middle eastern tribal warfare.

Although we have strayed in recent years, our society is still rooted in biblical concepts. Obedience to the ten commandments ensures a peaceful culture with maximum personal freedom.

A brief comparison with Islam produces a striking difference. Jesus' summary of the ten commandments reveals a loving God worthy of a loving, whole-hearted response. Allah is an inscrutable deity too capricious for genuine respect, much less ardent devotion beyond dry rituals and blind obedience.

The balance of the ten is embod-

Missionaries Never ‘Retire’ —They Just Find Another Field

After 27 years on the mission field, Marlin Baker was not ready to hang it up. With a heart for hurting people, he found plenty of them at the local jails. He knew that gospel literature was highly effective there because the inmates had plenty of What is Sharia?

Seldom heard of just a few years ago, sharia (or shariah) law has rapidly emerged from the shadows. Kansas Governor Sam Brownback recently signed a new law that courts in the state must rely exclusively on U.S. state and federal laws for all rulings.

It does not specifically mention sharia, the religious civil code imposed on all Muslim nations, but it would certainly be included. Kansas is not alone. 20 other states are considering such laws and three have already enacted similar statutes. Oklahoma approved a ballot initiative by a 70 percent vote specifically targeting sharia but federal courts have stopped its implementation.

So, why all the sudden interest? It is becoming obvious that the so-called “radical Muslims” are more than just a fringe element in Islam and that even the “moderate” Muslims (such as Jordan and Saudi Arabia) have no plans to tolerate Western freedoms when they have enough power to overthrow them.

The Muslim way of life, dictated by sharia law, leaves no room for prized Western tolerance, “multiculturalism,” and religious freedom. We take these so for granted that it is hard for us to imagine any other way to live. However, our involvement in Muslim countries such as Iraq, Afghanistan and the middle east has exposed the sordid treatment of women and raw tribalism of that culture.

Western hospitality has welcomed millions with this mindset. As we watch their failure to assimilate as generations of other immigrants have done, concern is growing. And the threat is very real. One need only look to Europe. France has Muslim enclaves that are no-go areas for local police. England has whole communities where polygamy, honor killings, jihad indoctrination, flogging of children and women are practiced. Non-Muslims are not welcome or even afraid to enter these areas.

One school teacher in England wrote a telling letter how things have changed since the school chose to accommodate the influx of Muslim students: “Out went nativity plays and in came winter festivals, no making of Easter cards drawing pictures of Easter bunnies, no art classes drawing your friend’s face, in came halal meat for school dinners without asking all parents.

“Boys and girls are to sit apart. No changing for PE for girls. No mixed swimming lessons. No admiring of the teacher’s litter of tiny puppies. No after-school activities. Little girls cocooned in nicabs and hijabs, quiet and demure, and as I have discovered, with sore welts on their backs for not making prayers correctly. One such ied in the command to love our neighbor as our self. Islam’s definition of “neighbor” is vastly different from the Bible’s. No “love” is allowed for anyone who does not join the tribe of Islam. Instead, he is an enemy of Allah and subjected to slave status or executed outright.

Well-meaning Westerners, ignorant of Islam’s global goals, fail to understand some of the terms used by Muslims. Islam’s world view is summed up in two phrases: dar al-Islam, realm of Islam, and dar al-Harb, realm of war. In the realm of Islam, all members are in full submission to Allah and subject to sharia law in all their activities.

The other phase: realm of war is just that, Islam is basically at war with the rest of the world. And since Islam operates on tribal warfare rules, the rules of engage-

Chick tracts!

Community Saturation Plan Continues to Expand

Dale and Sue Detro, authors of the booklet, Little Is Much, When God Is In It, report over 75 racks being serviced by their team every week. The tract rack ministry has been responsible for distributing over 500,000 tracts in 5 Indiana counties, plus tens of thousands more provided for home and foreign missions.

As their booklet explains, Dale and Sue had a vision about 6 years ago to saturate their community with the gospel. They bought some small card racks from WalMart and began to place them in local stores, restaurants and gas stations. They would return every week and refill the racks with Chick tracts.

When the ministry grew, their church agreed to help them with the cost and other members joined them.

Within a few months, they realized the plan was working when they would attempt to hand someone a tract and the person would ask for another title because, they would say, "I've already seen that one."

With the church name stamped on the back of the tracts, inquirers began coming to the church and new members resulted. In addition, church members saw how easy it was to witness with the tracts and many started reaching out with a new boldness in personal evangelism.

The Detros are rejoicing over some personal victories in their use of the tracts. One Roman Catholic lady had been the Detros' tax preparer for about 30 years. They had witnessed to her and shared tracts with her but she held fast to her hope in the "church" for salvation. Finally, on a recent visit, she told them that she had accepted Christ and no longer looked to the pope for her eternal life. Another lady, a Christian attorney who had helped the Detros from time to time, agreed to let them put one of the tract racks in her office. A young couple who recently time to read. The pictures in Chick tracts also help inmates with poor reading skills.

After 22 years in Korea and 5 years in the Philippines, Marlin returned to the U.S. where he quickly entered another mission field—local jails and prisons. Now, at 80, he has succeeded in planting over half a million tracts into that needy field.

His efforts in the jails have been rewarded by many testimonies. One prisoner writes: "I would like you to send me some literature in Spanish. A friend gave me a tract, The Great Escape. I like it very much. I am here in the Dallas jail. I have suffered much because I didn't know God and had never read the Bible. But now I know God loves me and that Christ died for my sins and now I am set free."

Another writes: "I want to share something special with you. When you send in the Chick tracts, they are very blessed. Once they are read here, Jesse sends them to his daughter and son. After they read them, they give them to his grandkids. Then his wife takes them to the hospital where she works and they find their way into various homes." This illustrates how much mileage the tracts get when seeded into the Surprise!

You have just been called to be a missionary!

A Chick tract user discovered this recently, when the following happened:

On Friday, we stopped for some Mexican food. Much to our surprise we saw a group of military men start trickling into the restaurant...13 to be exact. Judging by their uniforms they definitely did not represent the U.S. We thought it was a takeover!

I approached one of them and asked, "What military do you represent?" He said, "No English. You? Arabic?" I told him that I didn't speak Arabic and asked who in his group spoke English.

He directed me to another man in the group and I asked him, "What military do you represent?" This man responded, "We are from Qatar. We are here for training and today we are finished. We return in three days."

Imagine that, God brought 13 men from the 10/40 window into our contact! Praise the Lord that I keep a stack of Arabic Chick Tracts in my car. I passed out the tracts I had to these men, and each of them gladly accepted.

What a wonderful opportunity and example of how God has brought the mission field to Los Angeles. Let each of us be faithful to reach those who He's brought here with the gospel of Christ.

How To Get Rich

If You Can't Destroy the People of the Book, What's Next?

By David W. Daniels

If you were the Devil, and you wanted to destroy “the people of the Book,” but you couldn’t destroy the people, what’s left?

The Book!

Satan tried for centuries to destroy God’s Book. But God’s faithful people kept copying and accurately translating it. What could the Devil do? Persuade people not to trust in God’s Book! The Devil had already used this tactic when he got Eve to doubt God’s words. Satan simply asked, “Yea, hath God said?” And Eve bought it! Amazingly, she believed Satan’s words—and doubted God.

For centuries Christians believed the Bible is God’s very words. So Satan raised up so-called “scholars,” saying, “God didn’t want His words to be taken literally. It’s just the message of the Bible—His word, not words—that matters.” And their students bought it!

Satan’s “scholars” rejected the entire history of God’s preserved words found all over in thousands of manuscripts, in favor of less than 50 shoddy, contradictory manuscripts from Alexandria, Egypt, lying that they are “older and better.” So what did those scholars say, when their students found Alexandrian manuscripts disagreeing in thousands of places? “Don’t worry, it’s just the message—the word, not the words—that matters!”

So the scholars became like priests, and their students believed them instead of God. After that it was easy for the Devil to get the scholars to make “new” Bible translations every couple of years. Even though they use the same Vatican-approved Hebrew and Greek texts, they disagree with each other in many places. So what are Christian readers told, when they find those huge contradictions in the translations?

“It’s just the message of the Bible,—His word, not His words—that matters!” It’s an effective lie, so Satan keeps telling it, over and over. When Christians doubt God’s words, their faith is turned to doubt. The Devil knows that without faith it is impossible to please God (Heb. 11:6), so he does all he can to destroy that faith. Is your faith damaged? You need to see the whole picture. But sometimes books on Bible history and Bible versions are really big and complicated. That’s why we at Chick Publications make it easier to understand with books like Look What’s Missing, Answers to Your Bible Version Questions, the 5-lesson workbook Why the King James Bible Is the Perfect Word of God and the illustrated book, Did the Catholic Church Give Us the Bible. The 3-hour video, A Lamp in the Dark, traces Satan’s many attempts to destroy the preserved Bible, kill its translators and substitute his own polluted texts, giving us the modern Bible versions.

How can we win souls for Christ if we cannot trust His words? Chick Publications is committed to helping you and your loved ones understand how you can fully trust the King James Bible as God’s perfectly preserved words in the English language.

little child with welts on her back disclosed to me that her brother of 13 years had also been badly beaten and sent away to relatives in another city so as not to have the acts discovered.” (From Europe News, May 24, 2012.)

No need to study sharia law; just look at the results when it is in force. As Jack Chick explains in his new tract, Camel's In The Tent, Islam is a cruel and oppressive culture relentlessly determined to take over the world for Allah. They rightly claim that Western culture has deteriorated into decadence and they are out to overthrow it. But what they plan to put in its place will end the way of life as we know it. Anyone who does not submit to sharia will simply be executed.

Biblical Christianity is the only force that can stop them, but we have capitulated our culture to godless humanism which is spiritually toothless. One Jewish Rabbi recently admitted on the Glen Beck show that the only hope for the West was a revival of Evangelical Christianity. Chick Publications is also re-releasing the tract, Sky Lighter, along with Camel's In The Tent to provide a wake-up call against this attack on our freedom to get the gospel out to the world.

Many Christians want to provide Chick tracts to missionaries.

We can help!

We maintain an account called:
The Chick Mission Fund

Although we are not legally structured as a non-profit, and therefore cannot give tax-deductible receipts, we definitely know how to get literature into missionaries' hands. They often write to us asking if anyone can help them get Chick tracts.

Missionary from Thailand writes: “They went out very quickly. I cannot keep them in supply. . . Many pastors know about the supply and ask for them.”

100% of the funds you send to this account are used to ship literature to missionaries. We receive requests frequently from missionaries who need your help. Just during recent months, shipments have been provided for:

"This Was Your Life remains one of the simplest, most straightforward gospel presentations I've come across. I have used this particular tract as a pastor and prior to becoming one.

I gave several packets of Romanian This Was Your Life to a missionary that was headed to Romania. I gave him one packet in English. He said, having both not only helped his team with their presentation in Romanian, the pictures helped drive home the points to the people of Romania and people were won to Christ. In that I rejoice. This Was Your Life is a great presentation of the gospel and has worked well in my ministry and the ministries of others I know."

This book will help you to find out what Masonry believes, compared to what the Bible says.

For Christians, the Bible is our only reliable source to learn who God is, and what He wants for us, including how to get our sins forgiven and have eternal life in heaven with Him.

You must be able to answer this question with confidence and understanding:

“Should a Christian be a Mason?”

To do that, we need to find out these things:

- Where did Masonry come from?
- What do Masons believe?
- Who can we trust for our information?
- Who is God, according to these trusted authorities?
- Is the God of the Bible the same as the god of Masonry?

By the end of this book you will be able to answer these questions for yourself.

The Dark Side of ‘Gay’

The happy face of media-glorified homosexuality masks a dark side that is seldom talked about. Family Research Institute, a Colorado-based think tank specializes in studies related to family issues. For more than two decades they have researched homosexuality’s health threats and social damage ignored by Big Media or government agencies.

By collecting information from the obituaries in homosexual periodicals, FRI produced evidence that the sexually active homosexual male had an average life expectancy of about 42 years—before the advent of AIDS. Then it dropped to 39. Only 1 percent live past age 65.

Two factors emerged as the cause of

#5003 - 16 cents

this shortening of the life span: rampant spreading of sexually transmitted disease (STD) and violence. But this violence was not what is commonly portrayed: attacks by homophobes on helpless homosexuals. It was primarily within their own kind. FRI reports that the top six U.S. serial killers were all involved in homosexuality. In the past 5 years, 22% of 2,281 male homosexuals reported gay-on-gay physical violence and 5.1% reported gay-on-gay rape. Homosexually partnered adults are 100 times more likely to report domestic violence than heterosexual married adults. (See www.familyresearchinst.org.)

Few today remember that, when AIDS was discovered it was called GRID, Gay Related Immune Deficiency. Initially, the HIV virus quickly spread among the highly promiscuous male homosexuals. Inevitably, bisexuals introduced it to promiscuous heterosexuals and it went mainstream. Pressure over the name escalated until Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) became more generally accepted, masking the obvious connection to the “gay” community.

However, this did not change the reality. In August of 2009, LifeSiteNews reported: “An official with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) announced the CDC’s estimate Monday that in the United States, AIDS is fifty times more prevalent among men who have sex with men (‘MSM’) than the rest of the population.”

It is testimony to the power of the homosexual activist lobby that AIDS patients escaped the normal quarantine procedures used when such a disease surfaces. Instead, the entire medical field begin instituting privacy policies that ended up protecting the records of those who wished to hide their infection and thus their sinful lifestyle. In recent years, over 50 STDs have been identified. Both heterosexual and homosexual promiscuity had contributed to this as sexual standards have deteriorated. When the sin of abortion was first legalized and then the sodomy laws removed, the STD epidemic exploded.

Contrary to the modern public image of the loving, committed, homosexual couple raising happy children, FRI found that most of these so-called marriages were “open,” meaning that each partner was free to find other hook-ups. It was not uncommon for homosexual males to have up to 500 partners in their lifetime.

America continues to legalize and glorify sin. No wonder our economy is tanking and freak storms are increasing. Righteousness has exalted America, but now, sin has us in reproach (Proverbs 14:34). (See tract Somebody Angry?) prison system. Marlin's love for the prisoners has gained him access to various jails in the Dallas, Texas, area. He has developed a strategy that effectively works around the normal restrictions that prisons place on literature distribution. Marlin personally conducts Bible studies with prisoners as a voluntary chaplain in several city and country jails. Most of the facilities will not allow him to bring literature with him, but will permit mail addressed directly to an individual prisoner.

Once he develops a group in his Bible study, he will begin mailing tracts and other literature to them personally. As a chaplain, he has access to the inmate roster where he can get names and inmate numbers for the mailing. Once he establishes mail contact, the inmates have Marlin's address which they carry with them when they are transferred to other facilities. From there, they often write for more tracts which are spread around far beyond Marlin's first local contact.

Using this strategy, Marlin and his wife are able to cover several different jails, juveniles detention centers and women's prisons. Once he has an inmate on his mailing list, he will continue to send tracts until he does not get a response after a few months. While most facilities restrict what chaplains can personally bring in, Marlin's mailing list technique has put the gospel into the hands of hundreds of thousands of the most hurting people in the country. If mail from individuals is restricted, Marlin sends it through his church.

As prisoners continue to come and go there is an endless demand for gospel literature in the prisons. Some of the letters he gets would break your heart. One prisoner writes from Dallas Jail: "I have been reading the little tracts. They carry a big message in them. I would really like a copy of Tiny Shoes in Spanish for my wife. I know it will help her because we both have a drinking problem and have two children. Please don't delay."

Since there are jails everywhere, Marlin recommends his strategy to anyone with a heart for prisoners.

cumbing to the lie that same-sex marriage, etc. is okay. If we speak up against it, some of those on the fence will have the courage to also stand for righteousness. ment can be a mystery to the Western mind. We have desperately tried to segment Islam into the “moderate” and “radical” wings. This fits the Western “multicultural” perspective. But in Islam, the fringe element is not the radicals but the moderates who must fear for their lives if they stray too far from the interests of the tribe.

When Islam puts on a moderate, peaceful, lov-

When you connect the drive for global conquest with the promise of infinite pleasure in paradise, suicide bombers and overwhelming immigration infiltration make sense.

In the new tract, Camel's in the Tent, Jack Chick illustrates the insidious tactics of Islam in its war against the rest of the world. Many think that “terrorism” is Islam’s main tactic. And, since we have not seen any recent major terrorist attacks, then we are winning the “war on terror.”

But we are ignoring the war of infiltration. By taking advantage of the West’s “tolerance,” Islam has opened another front in the war. This is basically a war of religions. It’s their god against our God. But the West has bought into humanism and eliminated the God of the Bible. Humanism’s main tool is democracy to solve the world’s ills. But when Muslim voters outnumber the others, then sharia will become law.

— Cary Summers, organizer of a recent Bible exhibit in the Vatican.

“It took 300 years of clever maneuvering to bring us where we are today. David W. Daniels masterfully uncovers facts blurred by Roman Catholic historians. This marvellous book will be a wild ride and an eye opener.

Animated Chick Tracts Finding Many Uses

Soul winners are finding many ways to use the DVD of animated Chick Tracts. One church with three children's church services a week is showing the DVD to the children while waiting for the parents to pick them up. Teachers knew the message was getting through when one little girl admitted that her mother drank beer and asked if the devils got into her mom when she did, like it showed on the DVD.

The teacher had to admit that that was true and a little boy standing by said, "Then that must be why my dad gets mean when he drinks beer!" Out of the innocent mouths of babes come the hard questions, sometimes.

Another church has set up chairs in the parking lot and invited the neighborhood kids to come and see the stories, projected on an outside wall of the church. When they added free popcorn, they had a lot of visitors. The church is in a place with high foot traffic and many people take the time to stop and watch the short, engaging videos.

Others in the church have developed a ministry by taking the DVDs on a player or laptop computer to show to people. This works especially well in prison, rest homes and shut ins.

In any public place, a player can be set up to repeat the stories endlessly to catch anyone who happens to be in the area and has a few minutes to spare. Some businesses may already have equipment on display that could be showing the videos and mix the gospel witness with other business.

One church in South Carolina is located in a small county with approximately 1200 homes. They took on the project to duplicate 1200 DVDs and deliver a package to each home containing a DVD, copies of the tracts that are on the DVDs, and a short flyer about their church. This kind of saturation guarantees that the gospel has been delivered to each home in a form that will surely be read and understood. When they view the DVD, the stories are short but immediately engaging, making it very likely that it will be seen all the way through.

Since the story, The Sissy, was written specifically for truckers, Truckers' Christian Chapel, with dozens of chapel ministries at truck stops, made 10,000 copies and handed them out at truck stops and trucking conventions. They will often have a DVD player looping The Sissy video on their display at a convention or in a truck stop chapel. The companion video on the DVD, Tiny Shoes, deals with the devastation in a family caused by alcohol. TCC considers this a suitable complement to The Sissy, since this is one of the many temptations that drivers face.

Several foreign language versions are available. The Chinese version has been used in Beijing by a hotel owner who duplicates them and sets them on a lobby shelf with a free-take-one sign. When he puts up a new supply, they are sometimes gone in minutes.

Since those who buy the DVD are free to copy it for their own use, thousands are going around the world. Using the engaging stories of the original printed tracts makes the videos grab the viewer's attention and people usually stay for the whole message because of the short length. More animated videos of other Chick tracts are planned as soon as funds are available.

The animation is very expensive and a special organization has been set up to accept tax exempt donations. If you wish to help, please contact Biblical Video Productions, 1701 Rand Morgan Road, Corpus Christi, TX 78410. DVDs can be purchased from Chick Publications and previewed online at www.chick.com/animations.

A MESSAGE FROM JACK CHICK...

Dear ones in Christ.

Our big concern at Chick Publications is to know that we are in God's will concerning the stories in the tracts and His direction. We get on our knees every morning for guidance and Islam has been heavy on our hearts.

When President Bush opened up the White House for Muslims and celebrated Ramadan, Muslim leaders realized that by using their invasion techniques like they did for Jolly Old England they'll also be able to turn America into a Muslim state.

It seems just now that everything is quiet, but the Lord impressed us to produce Camel's in the Tent. Will we experience what Israel has faced for years? Will a mall be blown up in our country? Very possibly. The Lord knows what's coming.

Sometimes our tracts arrive just at the right time —others are futuristic. I expect communist demonstrations soon because the Lord seems to have tracts ready for what's coming.

The cover of my latest tract, Camel's in the Tent, is cute. David W. Daniels wrote the poem but inside is stuff everybody needs to know.

Pray for us and pray that the Lord uses Camel's in the Tent to both win souls and see what Muslims are planning for us.

Thank God that He is running the show. We have nothing to fear. He's coming very soon.
